

Case Studies

Be sure to look at google images for artifacts and maps for these cultures.

Adena: Moundbuilders of Kentucky

- “Adena People, Moundbuilders of Kentucky.” The Archeology Channel.
- “An Introduction to North America’s Native People.” Cabrillo College. 20122..
- “Adena Culture.” Ohio History Central.

Haida Canada

- “Haida Indian Fact Sheet” Native Languages of the Americas. Links to many sites as well as factual information.
- “The People and the Land” Canadian Museum of History. Prehistory, social organization, and mythology.
- “Native Americans: People of the Northwest Coast.” Discovery Education Streaming. (District Subscription Required) These people of the coast have many names: Tlinget, Haida, Salish, Tsimshian. Different names and different languages, yet they share a common background of survival along the rugged coastlines and dense forests. The coastal Indians fished the rivers and streams, hunted and trapped in the forest, built longhouses from cedar, and carved many intricate items such as totem poles and masks.

Taino in the Caribbean

- “History of the Taino Indians.” Dr. Francisco Collazo’s website. Higher level article.
- “Taino Indians of Puerto Rico.” El Boricua. Written for students.
- “Taino Indian Culture.” Welcome to Puerto Rico.org
- “Taino Indians.” Native American Class Website. See what another student has produced.